

Mr. Elmer Dale Allgood

Mr. Elmer Dale Allgood, 78, of Damascus, went home to the Lord early Wednesday morning, July 15, 2009. He was the husband of Mrs. Patricia Ann King Allgood, his wife of 55 years.

Born May 26, 1931, in Sasaqua, Okla., Mr. Allgood, fondly known as "Dale," was a son of the late Charles and Carrie Mae Hardesty Allgood. Dale grew up in Oklahoma and served our military during the Korean and Vietnam wars.

Dale also helped in serving his community as a career police officer. He retired in 1987 from the Rockville City Police Department.

He was a member of Montgomery United Methodist Church, Damascus. He enjoyed boats and spending time on the Chesapeake Bay and was a licensed pilot. His greatest joy in life was his family.

Surviving in addition to his wife are children, Brooks Allgood and wife, Bina, of Taylorsville, Nita Allgood Lawson and husband, Mark, and Stacy Allgood-Smith and husband, Ricardo, all of New Market; two grandsons, Blake and Brent Allgood; as well as siblings, Maxine Allgood Harris of Midwest City, Okla., and Arlen Allgood of Moore, Okla.

In addition to his parents, Dale was preceded in death by a son, Gilbert Blake Allgood; and sisters, Ruby Allgood Dowling and Bonnie Allgood Humphries.

Arrangements are by Molesworth-Williams Funeral Home, Damascus. There will not be calling at the funeral home. Friends may call, however, at his church from 6 to 9 p.m. Sunday, July 19, at Montgomery United Methodist Church, 2835 Kemptown Road, Damascus. The funeral service will be at 11 a.m. Monday, July 20, at the church. The Rev. Dr. Wade A. Martin will officiate, assisted by the Rev. Orlando F. "Bud" Kibbe. Interment will follow in Salem Methodist Cemetery, Germantown.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to either his church or to Salem Cemetery Association, c/o Robert L. Williams, P.O. Box 117, Damascus, MD 20872.

