

Mr. William Haag Sr.

Mr. William Anthony Haag Sr., 80, of Ijamsville, died Monday, April 6, 2009, at Montgomery General Hospital, Olney. He was the husband of the late Dolores Mary Harrison Haag, who preceded him in death on Jan. 1, 2006.

Born Nov. 15, 1928, in Washington, he was a son of the late Henry S. Sr. and Antoinette E. Raab Haag. He graduated from McKinley Tech High School, Washington, in 1948, and served in the United States Army. He retired with 29 years of service with the Government Printing Office in 1984.

Mr. Haag was a member of St. Ignatius of Loyola Roman Catholic Church, Monrovia, and a member of the American Legion Post 171, Damascus.

He was a great outdoorsman from an early age. Not only did he enjoy gardening, hunting, boating and fishing, but training bird dogs as well. One of his greatest joys in later years was deer hunting with his grandsons.

Surviving is his son, William A. Haag Jr. and wife, Kimberly, of Ijamsville; two grandsons, Billy and Ryan; a brother, Robert Haag Sr. and wife, Barbara, of Bowie; and sister-in-law, Wanda Haag of Silver Spring.

In addition to his wife and parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Henry S. Haag Jr.

Friends may call from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Monday, April 13, at Molesworth-Williams Funeral Home, 26401 Ridge Road, Damascus. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 14, from his church, St. Ignatius of Loyola Roman Catholic Church, 4103 Prices Distillery Road, Monrovia. The Rev. Michael J. Jendrek will offer prayers.

Interment will follow in Resthaven Memorial Gardens, Frederick.
