

Mr. Jimmy Ray Holt

Mr. Jimmy Ray Holt, 49, died Saturday, Dec. 19, 2009, at his home in Woodbine. He was the husband of Jan Gordon Holt. They were married May 4, 2002.

Born Sept. 13, 1960, in Thurmont, he was a son of Kenneth Hurley, and the late Mary Holt Hurley.

Jimmy grew up in Thurmont. He worked as a ground works plumber for Ben Lewis Plumbing for many years; and for the last two years he worked for, and was a member of, Plumbers Union Local 486. He enjoyed fishing, hunting and most of all farming. He was a big bear of a man with a very generous heart. Jimmy loved growing vegetables, raising beef cattle and pigs for butchering so he could make gifts of it to others. He was very grateful for his many friends in the community and his church family at Jennings Chapel United Methodist Church.

Surviving besides his wife and father are three sisters, Pam Longerbeam, Cindy Hurley and Wanda Hopkins; one brother, Kenny Hurley Jr.; mother-in-law, Noreen Gordon; sister-in-law, Eileen Clark and husband, Jimmy; nephew, Timothy Clark and his wife, Gretchen; and great-nephews, John Gordon Clark and Suter Clark.

A special thank you to Dr. Evelyn Jackson for her friendship and kind care.

Friends may call from 12:30 p.m. until funeral services begin at 2 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 23, in the church sanctuary at Jennings Chapel United Methodist Church, 2601 Jennings Chapel Road, Woodbine, MD 21797. The Rev. Brian T. Shockey, his pastor, will officiate. Honorary pallbearers will be Bob Johnson Sr., and Charlie Johnson Sr. Active pallbearers will be James Johnson, Chip Smallwood, Robert Thompson, Charlie Johnson Jr., Larry Phebus, Neil Smith, Jim Widmeier and Bobby Johnson Jr. Interment will follow in the church cemetery.

Because of Jimmy's great love for children, in lieu of flowers donations may be made to Jennings Chapel United Methodist Church, at the above address, for children's programs and activities. Please indicate on your donation that it is in memory of Jimmy Holt.
