

Mrs. Eleanor M. Hood

Mrs. Eleanor M. Hood, 84, of Mount Airy, died early Thursday morning, May 6, 2010, at Kline Hospice House, Mount Airy. She was the loving wife of the late H. Donald Hood, who predeceased her on Feb. 7, 2009. They were married for 65 years.

Born Dec. 17, 1925, in Montgomery County, she was the daughter of the late Clyde and Clytie Thompson Moxley.

She was a very active member of Prospect United Methodist Church, Mount Airy. She enjoyed helping with church activities.

She helped many years in the Hoods Meat shop with her late husband. Her delicious meals were famous at large family gatherings. Her other hobbies included line dancing, square dancing, collecting antique glassware, reading and traveling.

Surviving her are four children, D. Wayne Hood and wife, Mary, of California, K. Allen Hood of Myersville and friend, Fran Tipton, Darlene Clay and husband, Ronnie, of Middletown, and Larry R. Hood and wife, Charmaine, of Mount Airy; seven grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; and one sister, Lois Purdum and husband, Ray, of Damascus.

Mrs. Hood was preceded in death by a grandson, Ronald Dale Clay.

The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, May 9, at Molesworth-Williams Funeral Home, 26401 Ridge Road, Damascus. The funeral service will be held at 11 a.m. Monday, May 10, at her home church, Prospect United Methodist Church, 5923 Woodville Road, Mount Airy. Her pastor, the Rev. Vicki S. Curry, will officiate. Interment will be in the churchyard.

Serving as pallbearers are Allen, Larry, Brian and Vance Hood, Billy Scheel and Mark Plazinski.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Prospect United Methodist Church, in care of Mrs. Linda Scheel, 5923 Woodville Road, Mount Airy, MD 21771.
