

Mr. Roland Reginald Loun

Roland Reginald Loun, 73, of Kemptown, went to be with our Lord after a lengthy illness on Friday, May 21, 2010, at Frederick Memorial Hospital, surrounded by his family. Born April 1, 1937, in Kemptown, he was the son of Susie E. (Culler) Loun and the late Raymond R. Loun. He was the loving husband of Barbara Kay (Folk) Loun for 35 years.

Mr. Loun was a well-known local businessman as one of the owners and operator of Raymond R. Loun Inc. scrap metal yard in Kemptown. He also retired from the Montgomery County Parts and Equipment Division in 1993. Roland was a lifelong hunting, fishing and trapping enthusiast and was an active member of the Mount Airy Chapter of the Izaak Walton League, a member of Maryland Fur Trappers Inc., and a life member of the Barrelville Outdoor Club. He was a member of the Antique Automobile Club of America as well as the Antique Automobile Club of America, Sugarloaf Mountain Region. He served in the U.S. Army from 1960 to 1962 and served four additional years in the National Guard. He was a member of Providence United Methodist Church in Kemptown and served on the Providence Cemetery Co. committee. Roland was a loving father, grandfather, brother and friend, and will be greatly missed by all those whose lives he touched. He will also be missed by his furry companions, Queenie, Fuzzy, Red and Buffet.

In addition to his spouse, he is survived by his two children, Raymond R. Loun II and wife, Laura, of Frederick, and Roland L. (Trapper) Loun and wife, Tina, of Mount Airy. He was "Pappy" to his three grandchildren, Jesse Loun of Mount Airy, Culler and Chayan Loun of Frederick; and to his three step-grandchildren, Kim Vollmer of Ocala, Fla., Rose Wilke and spouse, Andrew, of Ocala, Fla., and Matthew Vollmer of Mount Airy. He is also survived by two brothers, Harold K. (Tookey) Loun and wife, Myrtle, of Mount Airy, and Allen S. Loun and wife, Betty Lou, of Waynesville, N.C.; and a sister, Patricia E. Schemm of Frederick. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by a brother-in-law, Charles W. Schemm Sr.

The family will receive friends from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, May 26, at Molesworth-Williams Funeral Home, P.A., 26401 Ridge Road, Damascus. Services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, May 27, at the funeral home. The Rev. Donna Renn will officiate. Interment will immediately follow in the Providence Cemetery, 3716 Kemptown Church Road, Monrovia.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Providence Cemetery Co., 3716 Kemptown Church Road, Attn: June Pearce, Monrovia, MD 21770.
